The Mikado Crowned Emperor—Yeddo Still Closed to Foreigners—A Heavy Loan Effected

SAN FRANCISCO, Sunday, Nov. 22.

Yokohama advices state that the Mikado, having attained his majority, has been crowned Emperor of Japan, at Kioto, and the Regency having ended, it was expected that he would leave Kioto for Yeddo. On the 21st of October a difficulty occurred in Yokohama between the Dutch officers and Japanese authorities; the latter were forbidden to transact any business at the Custom-house for Dutch subjects. The matter was finally amicably settled. Yeddo still remains closed to foreigners. It was expected that the opening of the city would not be postponed beyond the 1st of November. The event depended upon the result of the conference pending between the foreign Ministers and the representative of the Mikado. The custom-house, bonded warehouses, police office and other buildings have been furnished and occupied awaiting the business that the foreigners are expected to create. The Japanese Government has effected a loan of over half a million of dollars from the Oriental Bank Corporation. The security is a lien on the Custom-house receipts. The Tycoon has notified the foreign representative that his house has surrendered the Government to the Imperial Court. The Emperor will undertake for the future the maintenance of friendly relations with foreign Powers. The Emperor has conferred the title of Daimio upon the Tycoon, whose yearly income will be 700,000 keo-kus. Nagati was bombarded on Sept. 15, and taken possession of by the Southern troops. The foreigners in the place succeeded in reaching the steamer Osaca, which carried them to Shanghai. The Southern troops have also taken possession of Hakodadi, and forced NAMLEE, who held the place as a neutral, to retire. A number of persons seized the American steamer Augusta and compelled her to take them to a port in their own territory. The ship Mikado, employed in the bombardment of Nagati, had been wrecked, materially weakening the Southern fleet. The Imperial forces had invaded RIDGUA' (?) dominions from two directions and were strongly intrenched before his Castle. The reduction of this stronghold would probably result in the general pacification of the North.

The North German bark Iras had arrived at Kobe from Hamburg. She is the first vessel direct from Europe to that port. The United States steamer Oneida, the ram Stonewall, and several English, French and Dutch ships of war were at Yokohama, Oct. 28. Her Majesty's ship Rattler was wrecked Sept. 24, on a reef near the Island of Soya la Peireuse in the Straits. The officers and crew were saved and brought to Yokohama by His Imperial Majesty's ship Duplex.
