OUR ORIENTAL VISITORS.

Arrival of the Japanese Embassy to Chicago.

The distinguished gentlemen and ladies cordially welcomed.

Address by Mayor McDill and reply by Frankfurter.

The embargo to be shown around the City To-Day.

[Article continues with detailed description of events and activities related to the arrival of the Japanese Embassy in Chicago, including speeches, receptions, and public appearances.]